

AMENDMENTS TO THE SPECIFICATION:

Please amend the specification as follow:

Please amend the paragraph beginning at page 52, line 13 as follows:

Illustratively, if a reference to the personal information about the person who entered the room reveals that this person prefers TV ~~drams~~ dramas and if a drama is being broadcast currently on a TV channel, then the monitor control unit 1 turns on the TV set among the electronic devices in the room, generates a control signal to select the TV channel in question, and feeds the generated control signal to the TV set.
